We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for joining us at the 3rd Joint Congress of the INS European Chapters (e-INS 2023) in the beautiful city of Hamburg. Your presence and active participation made this event a resounding success, and we are truly grateful for your contribution to the scientific discourse and exchange of ideas.

Over the course of this congress, we witnessed a wealth of knowledge sharing, insightful discussions, and groundbreaking research presentations that have undoubtedly pushed the boundaries of neuroscience forward.

It is your passion, dedication, and enthusiasm that make events like these so inspiring and fruitful.
